GOD'S OVERFLOWING KINDNESS

The superabundance of God's kindness ties all of today's readings together. Especially when life overwhelms us, the Lord provides all we need, and then some. In the Acts of the Apostles, Peter takes the lead when facing the Sanhedrin. We might expect the man who denied Jesus to crumble under the imposing glare of the high priest. Instead, the Holy Spirit helps him testify to his faith in Jesus Christ. What Peter had lacked before, courage and conviction, God provides in abundance. Similarly, today's Gospel shows Jesus providing a surplus of fish for the disciples. They have no luck fishing until the Lord intercedes. Jesus supplies an almost ridiculous number of fish, and he cooks it for them, too. As our reading from Revelation affirms, the overflowing riches of God require constant praise. Countless creatures—"everything in the universe"—cry out to honor the Lord, forever and ever.

The Secular Franciscans at OLA belong to a worldwide order of Secular Franciscans. The Order was founded over 800 years ago and is under the guidance of the Franciscan Friars. They profess to live like St. Francis in their love for Jesus Christ by following His Gospel in their daily lives – in their homes, work, parish and in all encounters of each day.

Through prayer and the intercession of St. Francis, they strive to see Christ in every person and to live in simplicity, humility, peace and joy with all creation. Our lives are not so much about what we do but more about what we are. St. Francis advises us “to preach always and use words when necessary.” Jesus chose the twelve apostles and He was first concerned about who they were, not what they did.

Congratulations to Joseph Acosta on his recent candidacy into the Secular Franciscan Fraternity. For more information on the Secular Franciscans, please contact Diane Creedon at (650) 678-6449 or dianecreedon@sbcglobal.net.
